Unleashing Potential

Advisers for top-notch global education.

Global Education - Creating Avenues for Life

Quality global education peps up careers, and equips you with select business, technical and social skills for life. It acts as a springboard to launch your career in today's interconnected, cutting-edge global village.

Consulting Scholars™ is an overseas education and knowledge consulting firm founded by Ivy League alumni. We offer premium admission consulting services to students aiming to study in leading global universities and colleges in the US, UK, and Europe.

Specialists in overseas education advisory and admission consulting, we help aspirants secure college and grad school admissions by guiding them in the process through dynamic profiling and focused coaching. Our unique methodology is aimed at steering your efforts through an exhaustive, personalized approach.

Our expert consulting helps students match their career goals with the emerging areas of academics and research. Funding tips, financial assistance, visa and travel assistance, and customized advisory for living abroad are some of our special features for those who wish to pursue overseas programs.

Knowledge is power.

Why Consulting Scholars™

- The Ivy Advantage

Guidance by Ivy League alumni and experienced education consultants who understand the value of a top-of-the-line global education.

- Personalized Approach

One-on-one consulting from the very first day by trained consultants who will align your goals with global opportunities.

- Overseas Experience

With overseas education background, we will guide you through the admissions and academic requirements keeping socio-cultural and global dynamics in mind.

- Admissions Committee Exposure in Overseas Schools

We have consultants who have been on an Ivy League admissions committee. Your application endeavor will therefore receive a premium strategic thrust.

- Experience in Academia

You will be guided by consultants who have had substantial experience in academia, higher learning, funding, scholarships and career management.

- Beyond Business

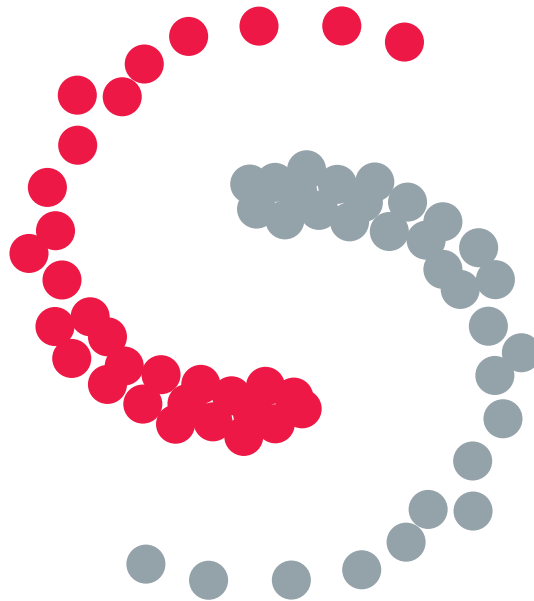

We build relationships for life. As Consulting Scholars™ alumni we will stay connected even after you have left the shores.

Your Highway to Global Education

Education is not preparation for life.
Education is life itself.
